

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE BOTRYTIS PINOT GRIS 2023

'The 2023 Pinot Gris Botrytis offers a comforting cuddle with every sip. It's a fully sweet, gentle wine with just enough acidity to balance that sugar. This is pure fruited with an element of savoriness and a hint of spice adding interest to the apple and jalapeño flavors.' 91 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

GREYWACKE BOTRYTIS PINOT GRIS 2018

'This lovely dessert wine was made from shrivelled grapes, hand-harvested in the Brancott Valley and near Renwick, and fermented in an even split of tanks and old French oak barriques. Golden, with a honeyed bouquet, it is fleshy and complex, with lush, peachy, honeysweet flavours, balanced acidity and a slightly oily richness.' 98 Points, Michael Cooper, WINESTATE MAGAZINE

'Full, bright yellow colour, fresh looking for its age, and the bouquet is superbly fresh and vibrant, with creamy, beeswax and floral fruit evident with good intensity. The wine is again handsomely intense and rich on palate, while retaining finesse. Lots of honey and citrus blossom aromas. The sweetness is clean and the finish refreshed by balanced acidity. An outstanding sweet wine, Alsace late-harvest style, in great condition and promising to be long-lived.' 96 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Aromas of honeyed peaches and apricots, beeswax, apple and a moment of whit-beer. Lusciously sweet with contrasting acidity, flavours of fruits and honeysuckle to reflect the bouquet, spicy, lengthy and utterly delicious.' 95 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, WORLD OF WINE (NZ)

'Luscious dessert wine with honey, orange marmalade, anise, licorice, poached pear and clove spice. Intense, sweet wine with sweetness nicely restrained by a thread of ripe acidity. A delicious sticky.' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'The colour of melted butter, this is a luscious and intensely aromatic botrytised dessert wine with notes of lemon drops, nectar and cherry blossoms at the height of bloom. The palate is mouthcoating and unctuous with enough acidity to cut through the sweetness, which feels subtle rather than cloying.' 94 Points, Editors' Choice, Christina Pickard, WINE ENTHUSIAST

'The 2018 Botrytis is lightly aromatic, noble-rotted Pinot Gris that eases across the palate. Fully sweet and lightly spiced with a lifted note.' 90 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

'Leafy and toasty notes on the nose with aromas of peach, mango and herbs. Sweet, with an oily texture. Round and herbal with fresh acidity and a lively, flavourful finish. Tangy at the end. Almost sweet and sour.' 93 Points, James Suckling, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

GREYWACKE BOTRYTIS PINOT GRIS 2015

'Luscious apricot and black fig, with exotic spice and dried orange peel. Tastes sweeter than the 105g/L residual sugar suggests, but in harmony with its acidity.'

Rated 6th. TOP 10 NEW WORLD SWEET WINES, 93 Points, Joanna Simon, DECANTER.COM

'Lush, honeyed...kicks off with scents of beeswax, marmalade and candied ginger. It's medium to full-bodied, broad and mouth coating on the palate but reasonably balanced, with hints of fresh peaches, tangerines and a bit of citrus pith on the finish.' 93 Points, Joe Czerwinski, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'Apricots and honey, preserved peaches and quince, apple, button mushroom and marmalade, tropical fruits and roses. Creamy, sweet and delicious, full-bodied, fruity and lengthy.'

95 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, CAMDOUGLASMS.COM

'Chock-a-block with mango, baked fig, honey and candied apple, with a subtle seasoning of fragrant spice. It's succulent and intensely flavoured on the palate, delivering lush sweetness backed by refreshing acidity, finishing luxuriously appealing and gratifying.' 94 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

'Around 50% of the fruit is wild-fermented in old barrels, giving additional richness and complexity to the waxy, honeyed lanolin scents and viscous apricot, orange and sweet citrus flavours. The 105g/l of residual sugar is balanced well by the acidity, making it quite an accessible sweet wine. It finishes with some honeycomb, marmalade and floral lift.' 92 Points, James Button, DECANTER.COM

'This works well, offering rich, super sweet and glossy apricots and nectarines, as well as toffee notes. Silky, sweet and luscious palate. Soft finish.' 92 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Pale gold, it is mouthfilling, rich and complex, with concentrated stone fruit and spice flavours, sweet, rounded and lasting.' 5 Stars, Michael Cooper, MICHAELCOOPERWINES.COM

'A rich, golden-hued Pinot Gris. The botrytised fruit notes and wild fermentation combine to provide a characterful, sweet style. There's an array of flavours, from orange to toffee apples, to lanolin, plus a smoky finish. The acidity is gentle and just sufficient to keep the sweetness levels in check.'

90 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

GREYWACKE BOTRYTIS PINOT GRIS 2013

'Gorgeously luscious aroma of apricots and dried pears. Viscously mouth-filling and with terrific intensity of dried pear and fresh apricot, the aroma matched perfectly on the palate. Attention-grabbingly delicious. Long and decadent. The best vintage of this wine I have tasted...still so youthful and a long way ahead.'

18 Points, Julia Harding MW, JANCIS ROBINSON.COM

'Delicious dessert wine in a moderately sweet style, with obvious botrytis influence that still allows the ripe pear, quince varietal flavours to remain fairly prominent. Remarkably fresh and highly drinkable sticky.'

94 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Intense musk and curry spice – lovely blend of variety and botrytis spice characters. Overripe pear and stone fruit. Brisk acidity balances the fully sweet palate, with purity of fruit and clean botrytis spice giving lovely length.'

17 Points, Tim Jackson MW, JANCISROBINSON.COM

'A combination of baked green apples and baked Bosc pears, liberally sprinkled with ground cinnamon and nutmeg. It's medium-bodied, not overly sweet or unctuous with enough citrus on the finish to keep it balanced and very drinkable.'

92 Points, Joe Czerwinski, EROBERTPARKER.COM - Tasted 2019

'Mellow, rich and concentrated apples and melon, this has some pastry-like notes on the palate that will suit baked, pastry-style sweet dishes perfectly.'

92 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'A sweet but not super-sweet style, still fresh and youthful, with mouthfilling body, rich lemon, peach and slight honey flavours, and good complexity. It should be long-lived; drink now or cellar.'

4½ Stars, Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES 201

'Pleasant stone fruits and gentle spice on the nose. Honeyed pear flavours with hints of lemon zest, melon and spice.'

91 Points, Toni Paterson MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Immediately appealing on the nose displaying dried apricot, marmalade, clover honey and dried flower notes. Lovely balance and harmony, and highly enjoyable.'

GREYWACKE BOTRYTIS PINOT GRIS 2011

'Lush, rich and quite complex dessert wine in the style of Sauternes, with high alcohol (14%) and a suggestion of oak adding interest to intense peach, pear, apricot and honey flavours. A beautiful dessert wine.' 97 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ - Tasted 2018

'A rich, decadent sweet wine loaded with ripe melon flavors. Full-bodied and unctuous, it remains luscious and drinkable because it balances its 110 grams per liter residual sugar with soft, but present, acids and perhaps a delicate bit of phenolic grip.'

94 Points, Joe Czerwinski, EROBERTPARKER.COM - Tasted 2019

'Perfumed of honeysuckle, peach blossom and apricot preserves, with an undercurrent of musk, baking spices and lemon marmalade...sweet and intense in the mouth, with a lively line of acid injecting plenty of freshness to the textural richness as it finishes with very good length.'

90+ Points, Lisa Perrotti-Brown, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'Intense aroma of ripe spiced pears and sweetness like lemon biscuits, with just a hint of wet wool. Intensely sweet and rich and archetypally pinot gris – those spiced pears on the palate again – purity and weight combined. Mouthfilling and long.' 17 Points, Julia Harding MW, JANCIS ROBINSON.COM

'It's sweet-scented on the nose displaying marmalade, mango, floral and white honey. The palate shows beautiful sweetness, but it's not cloying, with wonderful intensity, framed by bright acidity. Long, fine, and very delicious. The overall balance is spot on.'

93 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

'A well-packed, but rounded heart with flavours of ripe yellow stone fruit, tropical fruits and honey, with apricot marmalade and nutty elements...now beginning to show some savoury secondary development. The mouthfeel is unctuous, and the fruit is underlined by a little alcoholic power and drive. The acidity is soft and integrated, but the power and linearity carry the wine to a very long, deep and rich, plush finish.'

18.5+ Points, Raymond Chan, RAYMONDCHANWINEREVIEWS.CO.NZ - Tasted 2018

GREYWACKE BOTRYTIS GEWURZTRAMINER 2014

'A lovely mix of bergamot, lychee and dried apricot...Like the other botrytis wines from Greywacke, it's not overdone or crazy sweet, but strikes a fine balance between sugar, fruit and acidity. Medium-bodied, with a silky feel and a lingering, sweet finish, it would be a terrific partner with blue cheeses.'

93 Points, Joe Czerwinski, ROBERTPARKER.COM

'Delicious now, the 2014 vintage is a single-vineyard wine, grown in the Wairau Valley. Light green/gold, with a spicy fragrance, it is generous, with strong, peachy, spicy, slightly gingery and honeyed flavours, sweet and rounded.' 4½ Stars, Michael Cooper, MICHAELCOOPERWINES.COM

GREYWACKE LATE HARVEST RIESLING 2011

'Very attractive clotted cream and lime curd on the nose, gently spicy and really pristine. The palate has a very smooth spicy citrus thread, with saffron, lime curd and lemon; bright and pure, balanced, powerful, terrific sticky wine. Drink now and for another 5+ years.'

93 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM – Tasted 2016

'Holy toffee apples, Batman! Hints of beeswax and spice on the nose tease into a beautifully fresh tangle of honeyed pineapple and caramelised citrus.' Yvonne Lorkin, YVONNELORKIN.COM – Tasted 2019

'It has more in common with a top Mosel Valley Auslese than anything else. Final analysis: superb!'

95 Points, Huon Hooke, HUONHOOKE.COM

'Lemon-scented...with rich, citrusy, gently honeyed flavours, abundant sweetness, lovely sugar/acid balance, delicacy and poise.' 5 Stars, Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES 2013

'Intensely sweet but finely balanced, which is a hallmark throughout the Greywacke range. Rich with oodles of cumquat notes. Still very young. A very long finish.' 94 Points, Ken Gargett, SPITBUCKET.COM

'Absolutely delicious nose, honey, botrytis, but lovely lime purity too...Delicious palate, that purity and vibrancy again and smooth, lanolin texture.' 91 Points, Tom Cannavan, WINEPAGES.COM

'Sweet, rich, luscious and viscous, it has crisp acid, beautiful concentration and a long finish.'

90 Points, Lisa Perrotti-Brown, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'Tropical fruits integrated with talc powder botrytis...with waves, unfolding complex herb and floral elements...rich with succulence.' 5 Stars, Raymond Chan, RAYMONDCHANWINEREVIEWS.CO.NZ

'Lemon peel, grapefruit, honeyed apple and a suggestion of sherbet. Rounded and flush with spicy citrus and apple flavours.' 4 ½ Stars, Cameron Douglas MS, CAMERONDOUGLASMS.BLOGSPOT.CO.NZ

'...indeed a luscious orange-marmalade-like flavour floods the palate, which remains, nevertheless, delicate and refreshing, thanks to the spritely acidity.' Chris Shanahan, CANBERRA TIMES (AU)

GREYWACKE LATE HARVEST GEWURZTRAMINER 2009

'Classic Gewurztraminer scent of rosewater and sweet spice accompanied by some apricot lushness and floral lift in the mouth. Beautiful.' 93 Points, James Button, DECANTER.COM – Tasted 2019

'Melony and lively pear and grape-fruitiness and some spicy vitality. It's not too musky, and the balance is just right between the sweetness and acidity. Delicious.' 93 Points, Jamie Goode, WINEANORAK.COM

'Unctuous and deeply sweet, with the acidity to keep it balanced. Viscous without being heavy. Delicious and with the potential to age further.' 17 Points, Julia Harding MW, JANCISROBINSON.COM

'It's beautifully poised, with subtle ginger spice, rose petal and white peach flavours and an extra dimension from ageing in older barrels. Elegant and complex.' 91 Points, Tim Atkin MW, TIMATKIN.COM

'I tasted this wine out of tank before bottling and was mightily impressed...moderately sweet wine with exotic varietal flavours.' 91 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ

'Powder-puff, spicy and frangipani-like aromas; rich, full-bodied, mouth-filling, with a medium sweetness level and lots of character.' 90 Points, Huon Hooke, SYDNEY MORNING HERALD (AU)

'Voluptuous with exotic aromas of rose petals, lychees and spice with a hint of caramel and apricot, sweet with velvety texture and beautifully long, bright finish.' Charmian Smith, OTAGO DAILY TIMES (NZ)

'Soft, caressing style with rich peach and cooked apple flavours, on top of the classic lychee, rose petal and ginger of Gewurztraminer, but none of the bitter oily traits. Yum.' Simon Woods, SIMONWOODS.COM

'Divine...elegant with a lovely structure and most satisfying finish.' John Hawkesby, NZHERALD.CO.NZ

'Youthful, sweet and rich, with concentrated, ripe peach, lychee and spice flavours, showing lovely vibrancy, delicacy and harmony.' 4½ Stars, Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES 2012

'Great smoky bacon glimpse, lychee and grapefruit freshness too, but this is about spice and luscious apricot on the palate, lovely mouth-feel and really fresh.' 92 Points, Tom Cannavan, WINEPAGES.COM
