

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2022

'A wine to ponder over...it is a powerful, fleshy wine, with lush stonefruit flavours, an unobtrusive splash of sweetness and finely balanced acidity. Already delicious, with notable complexity and richness.'

5 Stars, Michael Cooper, MICHAELCOOPERWINES.COM

'Bright, fresh and appealing pinot gris that is a delicious mix of sun-ripened tree fruit flavours and nutty yeast lees characters. A hint of sweetness is balanced by refreshing acidity.'

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2021

'Light yellow/straw hue with a struck-match flinty reductive high note, the palate is rich and intense yet also subtle and refined in its texture, generous and harmonious along the length. A whisper of sweetness, well controlled. Ripe yellow stone-fruits fill the tightly coiled palate. Excellent wine.'

94 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Meyer lemon, quince and citrus blossom followed by honeycomb, dried tea leaves and a touch of flinty minerality. Medium-bodied, bright acidity. Beautifully balanced wine with fascinating minerality and crispness.'

93 Points, James Suckling, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Poached pear, honeysuckle, clove/spice, ginger and a seasoning of nutty lees gives a strong varietal fingerprint as well as a clue to regional identity. Intense wine with underlying power, and a touch of alcohol heat.'

93 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'The powerful 2021 vintage was hand-picked, mostly fermented in old French oak barriques, and then all matured in old barrels for a further six months. Weighty and concentrated, it has deep, vigorous stonefruit and spice flavours, showing excellent complexity and harmony, and a lengthy, off-dry finish.'

5 Stars, Michael Cooper, MICHAELCOOPER.CO.NZ

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2020

'An intense, complex, vinous, barrel-influenced style on the nose with appealing aromas of brown pear, fig, cinnamon, baking spice, baked almonds, and brioche with just a hint of lavender. Full-bodied, ripe, fleshy, off-dry in an Alsace style with a soft, rounded, viscous texture, with warm baking spice and great phenolics on the long finish. A hedonistic wine.' 95 Points, Bennet & Hudson, WINERATER.CO.NZ

'Bright, light and very youthful green-yellow hue with a mineral and spice aroma; reserved, reticent, with a note of struck flint. It's richer in the mouth than expected, with a drying savouriness and tenseness that adds length to the tautly composed palate. There's a good underlying richness here that satisfies. Long carry. A real keeper.' 95 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Bright, fleshy wine with layers of savoury/roast nut, stewed apple, ginger and ripe pear flavours. Complex and sophisticated pinot gris that is richly textured, and has an appealing tannic backbone and a dry finish' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'A delicious bouquet of gently spiced white flesh fruits - baked pear and nectarine then a fine layer of sweet citrus and minerality. Silky textures touch the palate first then a layer of acidity and white spice create contrast and complexity. Plenty of acidity, mineral and fruit flavours driving length and complexity. Well-made and quite delicious... Excellent.' 93 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, CAMDOUGLASMS.COM

'A charmingly aromatic nose with notes of dried lemon peel, ginger and chamomile. Medium-bodied. Delightful silky texture carries linear notes from the nose to the palate with a stony and refreshing finish.' 92 Points, James Suckling, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Due to EU bureaucracy (and very ripe grapes), Greywacke's 2019 Pinot Gris could not enter Europe, and so the 2020 Pinot Gris will be what Europeans drink while the rest of the world sips the 2019. The 2020 is a little funkier than the 2019, offering talc, crunchy pear and white flowers and a touch of reduction. While the 2019 is more open and floral, there's a greater sense of tension and energy in the 2020, which Judd suggests may be due to the clone and the parcel selection, and a slightly cooler season – as well as being a year younger.' 92 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2019

'This powerful wine was grown at Rapaura (mostly) and in the Brancott Valley, handpicked, and fermented mostly in old French oak barriques. Bright, light yellow/green, it is weighty, with concentrated, ripe, peachy, spicy flavours, a hint of ginger, fresh acidity and an off-dry finish.'

97 Points, Michael Cooper, WINESTATE MAGAZINE

'Greywacke consistently makes one of New Zealand's best pinot gris. This is a rich, ripe, almost luscious wine, with an appealing mix of ripe pear, apple and bready yeast lees flavours. Good weight and a lengthy finish.'

95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Intense, vinous and complex on the nose with aromas of green pears, plantain banana, fallen leaves and nutty lees complexity. Surprisingly off-dry, textural, lush and tangy with a rich, oily texture, layers of flavour and a warm, mellow finish. This is an unctuous, exotic wine with a lot going on.'

95 Points, Bennet & Hudson, WINERATER.CO.NZ

'Complex and enticing bouquet with aromas of white spices and lees, wild flowers and exotic fruits, apple and pear. The wine coats the palate with flavour and texture leaving behind the taste of white fruits, spices and flowers. Perfectly balanced, silky and well made, complex and just dry on the finish.'

95 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, THE SHOUT (NZ)

'Lifted and complex aromas of grilled nuts, puffed wheat, grapefruit pith, apple skin and spice. Textured, layered and long; nutty, plenty of citrus, a lick of pear, apple and vanilla. Some grip and texture provides mouthfeel and length. Sophisticated gear.'

95 Points, Aaron Brasher, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'I love the rich, toasty complexity in this maturing wine and its fig-like notes on the nose and nectarine stone and spicy pear flavours on the palate.'

Gold Medal, Yvonne Lorkin, DISH MAGAZINE (NZ)

'Produced from "really ripe" fruit, according to maker Kevin Judd, the 2019 Pinot Gris has exotic spice, floral and rose notes that might make you ask if there's any Gewürztraminer in the blend. It's off-dry, charming, soft and open with a well-padded core thanks to the ripeness (14.5% alcohol) and lick of residual sugar. Medium length.'

90 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2018

'A delicious gris of optimal ripeness, compelling precision and superlative textural detail... Weighty, intensely flavoured and immensely versatile. In the vein of the best of Alsace or better, Baden. Gris as it should be executed. A dollop of sweetness finds an effortless confluence with the grip and verve.'

96 Points, Ned Goodwin MW, @NEDGOODWINMW

'Rich, ripe, very complex bouquet with crystalline lemons, windfall apple and stylish barrel/lees influences adding baked pastry characters and smoky notes. Full-bodied and tasty - providing a big, mellow, mouthful of flavour with a nice touch of sweetness. An opulent wine.'

95 Points, Bennet & Hudson, WINERATER.CO.NZ

'Complex, varietal, pure fruit core, floral, layers of mineral and fine lees complete the bouquet... Warm and generous with a satin texture, medium+ acidity and lengthy finish. Delicious!'

94 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, THE SHOUT (NZ)

'Late-harvested grapes fermented in a mix of wild and cultured yeasts with five months maturation in old barrels. Rich, ripe, creamy-textural wine with honey, caramel, poached pear and a suggestion of honeysuckle. Unctuous but not cloying.' 93 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Reserved yet clearly varietal aroma of very ripe gris: lychee and tropical flowers. The palate is rich and just off-dry, the sweetness harmonising well with the rich flavour and evident alcohol...A very smart full-flavoured, late-picked style of gris.' 93 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Aromas of poached pear, baked apple and dried apricot, as well as some smoky elements. The palate has a soft, smooth-honed and sturdy feel.' 90 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'An opulent pinot gris with its full-bodied, voluptuous texture...flavours of jasmine, honey, figs, roses and pears. More sumptuous than sleek, with just enough grip on the finish to provide structure.'

91 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

'Still unfolding...riperly scented and weighty, concentrated stone fruit and spice flavours, gentle sweetness, fresh acidity, and obvious potential for cellaring.' 5 Stars, Michael Cooper, THE LISTENER (NZ)

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2017

'Very ripe and rich, with exotic fruit aromas including spiced poached stone fruits and traces of passionfruit, pineapple and guava. The palate is full and rich, round and almost opulent, with gorgeous texture and harmony, a taste of lychee and a trace of sweetness enhancing its irresistible drinkability. It's veering towards an Alsace vendange tardive style. Delicious!' 95 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Ripe, flavoursome pinot gris with stewed apple and pear flavours, together with appealing spice and savoury characters.' 94 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Richness and plenty of sweeping fruit weight that is all apples and pears. The palate has a succulent, fleshy texture and handy layering with good balance.' 92 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESUCKLING.COM

'Lemon and lime notes, even a hint of bergamot, bring intriguing citrusy complexities to the finish.' 91 Points, Joe Czerwinski, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'Ripe peach and pear flavours have a soft, juicy acidity and an elegant profile, with details of white pepper, dried chamomile and honeysuckle...' 92 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINESPECTATOR.COM

'Gorgeous ripe flavours together with spicy nuances...rich floral aromas on the nose...rich texture and creamy mouthfeel...Generous and terrific drinking.' 94 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

'A ripe and generous style that sits in the off-dry department. It offers baked apple, apricot and mixed spices within the gentle core of fruit...' 91 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

'Vibrant and expressive...white spice and pear skin, poached red apple and wildflowers...texture is gently creamy even oily, then fruity.' 93 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, CAMDOUGLASMS.COM

'Deliciously rich, Alsace style...attractively scented, weighty wine, with concentrated peach, pear and spice flavours, excellent complexity and an off-dry, very harmonious finish.' 5 Stars, MICHAELCOOPER.CO.NZ

'Honeyed ginger, citrus, spice, and yeasty minerals linger on the long finish, with excellent length. Highly recommended.' 93 Points, Jason Solanki, VINTAGEWINEPICKS.BLOGSPOT.COM

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2016

'Among the best examples produced from Marlborough. Sensitively made, with strong varietal character and an ethereal texture...delicious pinot gris.' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ

'Symphonic with tremendous complexity and concentration of peaches, pears and baked apples. Plenty of pastry-like, smooth, bready character on the palate.' 93 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESUCKLING.COM

'This powerful, barrel-aged wine is fragrant, sturdy and rich, with slightly sweet stone fruit, ginger and spice flavours showing excellent complexity, delicacy and depth.' 5 Stars, MICHAELCOOPER.CO.NZ

'Gorgeous, sweet fruit with a strong thread of spice running through the nose and palate. Intensely flavoursome.' 93 Points, Toni Paterson MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'...baking spices layered over poached apples and pears. Plump and succulent, it has enough weight and texture to satisfy, while maintaining crisp acidity.' 91 Points, Joe Czerwinski, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'Alsace-like richness and complexity, this gorgeous rendition shows summer peach, apricot, poached pear and mandarin...a sumptuous palate that's plump and fleshy.' 95 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

'...laced with honey and assorted tropical fruits, into off-dry, but balanced, nougat and floral finish, with some grip and tension to round it out. Good style.' 92 Points, Gary Walsh, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'Gorgeous rich and mouth-filling flavours... The overall complexity and sheer lusciousness of this pinot gris make it very special indeed.' 93 Points, Marguerite Thomas, WINEREVIEWONLINE.COM

'Gentle, relaxed aroma of rosewater and a hint of apricot.' 90 Points, James Button, DECANTER.COM

'Rich, spicy, with creamy white and yellow peach. Lots of spice. Off-dryness works with the weight. Attractive, with decent length.' 16 Points, Tim Jackson MW, JANCISROBINSON.COM

'Pear, spice, lemon, wild roses intermingle through the comfortable finish. This expressive, Alsatian-esque gris is for weightier dishes.' 89 Points, Treve Ring, GISMONDIONWINE.COM

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2015

'An instant five-star success with our panel of judges...weighty, ripe, smoky, chalky, fleshy, off-dry, juicy...stylish.' Top Pinot Gris, WINENZ MAGAZINE (NZ)

'Complex, mouthfilling and engaging, this is both stylish and delicious, exhibiting poached pear, rockmelon, jasmine and subtle spice aromas. The palate is superbly ripe and generous, while remaining vibrant and bright... offers best of the Old and New Worlds, showing ripe fruit intensity and seductive savoury complexity.' 94 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

'A lovely young wine, showing greater complexity than most pinot gris, it is fleshy and vibrantly fruity, with mouthfilling body and deep, ripe peach/pear flavours...a rich, subtle, finely poised wine.'

5 Stars, Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES

'Full-flavoured, elegant pinot gris with apple, pear and delicate spice and anise flavours. A barely discernible sweetness is balanced by soft acidity and fine tannins to give a drying finish.'

92 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ

'Ripe pear, lychee, some spice and funk. Showing some age and complexity, sweetness and some residual sugar at play, perfume and powder puff and apple stuff. Finish has a bit of grain and grip. It's flavoursome.'

91 Points, Gary Walsh, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'Succulent melon, pear and peach flavours are juicy and fleshy, accented with details of honeysuckle, green tea and toast, lingering effortlessly.' 90 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINE SPECTATOR

'Opens with a mild grapefruit and nectarine pith bouquet...the flavour profile is a quince and cantaloupe blend with notes of Bosc pear...gentle minerality and dash of white pepper.'

90 Points, Very Good+, KENSWINEGUIDE.COM

'Candied lemon, spices and oodles of minerals...terrific structure, length and persistence of flavour throughout are hallmarks of this wonderful offering.' Gabe Sasso, SMOOTH.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2014

'Baked apple, pear, vanilla custard and brioche characters. Fresh and flavoursome restrained by subtle acidity and fine tannins. A classy pinot gris.' 94 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.CO.NZ

'This is a fine example of the variety's potential in Marlborough. Smoky, grilled-pear notes, honey and melon on the palate, where despite its richness, the wine soars into a long, velvety finish.'

92 Points, Joe Czerwinski, WINE ENTHUSIAST (USA)

'Rich, ripe aroma of nettles and faint 'bath powder' aromas, some hints of almost gewürztraminer-like spices. Lovely wine in an off-dry style.' 92 Points, Huon Hooke, HUONHOOKE.COM

'This Alsace-inspired pinot gris shows aromas of yellow peach, baked pear, spice and flint...leading to a fabulously long, velvety finish. Sumptuous and engaging.' 94 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

'Rich, exuberant style. Fills the nostrils with scent, the mouth with flavour. Lychee and spice, cooked apple and pear. No shrinking violet.' 90 Points, Campbell Mattinson, WINEFRONT.COM

'Very vibrant, ripe, citrusy, peachy flavours, a sliver of sweetness, good complexity and a long, slightly spicy finish. A very harmonious wine.' 4½ Stars, Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES

'Expressive and rich, with perfumed dried rose petal and toasted green tea wrapping around a core of lean citrus flavours. Spicy and juicy on the finish.' 89 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINE SPECTATOR (US)

'Intensely scented of spiced pears, ripe apples and honeysuckle with baker's yeast and fennel seed hints.' 88 Points, Lisa Perrotti-Brown, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'A touch of rose petal and musky spice notes, spiced strudel apple and a hint of apricot-like sweetness to the finish where there is the subtlest suggestion of hokey pokey...sublimely ethereal and elegant.' Sue Courtney, WINEOFTHEWEEK.COM

'Greywacke remains at the top of Marlborough's quality pile with wines like this Alsatian-inspired pinot gris...silky, plush texture of a sweetish, irresistible palate.' Chris Shanahan, CHRISSHANAHAN.COM

GREYWACKE

'Gorgeously maturing wine...succulent palate that's opulent and velvety. It's complex, seamless and persistent...irresistibly delicious.' 95 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ – Tasted 2019

'Beautifully textured and weighted, lychee and sweet lime, super length. Sweetness, complexity, balance, interest, drinkability. All there.' 94 Points, Gary Walsh, WINEFRONT.COM

'Creamy-textured, youthful, ripe peach, pear, lychee and spice flavours, a splash of sweetness and excellent complexity and harmony.' 5 Stars, Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES

'Seamless, silken and subtle Pinot Gris, with spicy stewed apple and cream flavours, plus a subtle toasted nut influence. Very attractive wine.' 94 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ

'A complex mix of lemon zest, honeydew, Bartlett pear, poached yellow apple and cinnamon flavours, with a refreshing finish.' 90 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINE SPECTATOR (USA)

'Alsace in style...lovely nectarine fruit – the sweetness barely noticeable, the texture giving it a savoury quality. Very good indeed.' 17.5 Points, Julia Harding MW, JANCISROBINSON.COM

'Very complex Alsatian-style...wild meadow blossoms, wild roses, perfumed with textured stone fruit and lingering bitter-kissed spices...Expressive, impressive.' 92 Points, Treve Ring, WINEALIGN.COM

'Some nettle and subtle barrel-ferment notes. The palate is soft and fruity, grapey and spicy, with a definite muscat-like touch.' 91 Points, Huon Hooke, HUONHOOKE.COM

'A yeasty, toasty and spicy nose dotted with allspice, delicate peachy notes and a lemon drop lift.' 89 Points, Lisa Perotti-Brown, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'Kevin Judd has mastered the art of squeezing in as much luxuriously rich baked stone fruit, quince, apple and nashi notes into his pinot gris.' Yvonne Lorkin, YVONNELORKIN.COM

'Succulent...honeysuckle and smoke to pear and nectarine. Go for it!' Olly Smith, OLLYSMITH.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2012

'Half the juice was fermented using indigenous yeast for this stylish wine; the beautifully lifted bouquet shows poached pear, golden peach, rock melon, spice and floral characters, leading to a succulent palate that is both vibrant and silky. The wine offers textural mouthfeel and wonderful intensity, finishing delectably long.' 94 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ – Tasted 2019

'A powerful, weighty wine, it is still tight and youthful, with concentrated, vibrant, peachy, spicy, slightly gingery flavours, unobtrusive sweetness, fresh acidity and a beautifully balanced, long finish.'
5 Stars and new 'Potential Classic', Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES 2014

'Wonderfully balanced between intense flavors, a creamy texture, elegant nuances and a juicy finish. Peach blossom, nectarine, apricot and mandarin orange notes form the core, with touches of white flowers, spice and mineral.' 91 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINE SPECTATOR (USA)

'Flinty, but thickly textured with lemon barley and tropical fruit. Acid cuts through appropriately and the finish is dry and slightly chalky.' 90 Points, Gary Walsh, WINEFRONTNZ.COM

'Beautifully textured and rounded yet refreshing and immensely appealing. Lovely bouquet shows yellow peach, floral and a hint of spice. Sumptuous and striking.' 91 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

'Soft and fruity, grapey and spicy, with a definite muscat-like touch. It's smooth and pleasing, with ample flavour and a touch of complexity.' 91 Points, Huon Hooke, HUONHOOKE.COM

'This is the best Marlborough pinot gris I've had in ages. Quite a complex and satisfying pinot gris - dancing between ripe fruit and firm acidity. Good!' 92 Points, Andrew Graham, OZWINEREVIEW.COM

'Refreshing aromas of nashi pear, quince, nectarine and citrus fruits are supported by hints of lemon curd, fresh cream and soft spice...lovely shape and flow across the palate.'
92 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2011

'Appealing spiciness gives a nod to Alsace.' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ

'Struck flint and slightly smoky aromas give way to flavours of honeyed peaches and toasted nuts...restrained yet lush.' EDITOR'S CHOICE, 92 Points, Joe Czerwinski, WINE ENTHUSIAST (USA)

'Powerful, weighty wine.' 5 Stars, Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES 2013 (NZ)

'A finely weighted pinot gris, with musk, peach and pear flavours, a creamy texture and enough acidity for balance. Exotic, but refreshing...' 91 Points, Tim Atkin MW, TIMATKIN.COM

'This is a rich, perhaps Alsace-style pinot gris with lovely aromatics, some delightfully nutty wild yeast character, good weight and definition on the palate too.' 91 Points, Tom Cannavan, WINEPAGES.COM

'Alsace in style...it's succulent and rounded with rich texture.' 91 Points, Sam Kim, WINE ORBIT (NZ)

'...delicate rose-water aromas...juicy (peaches and pears) on the mid-palate with a dusting of baking spice, it finishes clean and with good acid grip.' 90 Points, Linda Murphy, WINEREVIEWONLINE.COM

'Oozing ripe pears and peaches, and complex nutty, buttery caramel notes, it's also balanced, harmonious and charming.' 4½ Stars, Charmian Smith, OTAGO DAILY TIMES (NZ)

'Gentle hints of pears, soft texture, hints of spices. More weight than many. A pleasing flick of bitterness on the finish to tie it all up. A tight, clean, ripe, mid-length style.' Ken Gargett, SPITBUCKET.COM

'This release has me perplexed. It feels sweet and hot, but it's beautifully aromatic and rich with flavour. Pears, spice, apple, musk, Turkish delight and licorice.' Campbell Mattinson, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'Wild white flowers, an array of white fleshed fruits laced with a little spice...an Alsace-like feel with a Kiwi twist.' 5 Stars, Cameron Douglas MS, CAMERONDOUGLASMS.BLOGSPOT.CO.NZ

'A heady cocktail of sweet spice, white flowers and apricots.' David Williams, THE OBSERVER (UK)

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE PINOT GRIS 2010
