GREYWACKE RIESLING 2022

'Bright, light yellow/green, it is a full-bodied style of riesling, with concentrated, ripe, peachy flavours, showing excellent depth, delicacy and vigour, considerable complexity, gentle sweetness, balanced acidity, and a very harmonious, persistent finish. Already delicious.'

5 Stars, Michael Cooper, MICHAELCOOPERWINES.COM

'Vibrant, off-dry riesling with intense lime and oyster shell flavours. Sweet/sour interaction gives the wine an exquisite tension. I have little doubt that the wine will age well, although it is delicious now.'

95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Bright gold. Instantly complex and beguiling perfume with hints of toasty development. Spice, dried roses, hints of honey and mushroom all combine into a pot-pourried amalgam of aromas. Medium-dry on the palate, light and elegant but with lovely complexity and a feathery texture surrounds this flowing wine as it slides into a nicely tapered mid-weight apple and grapefruit flavours with just enough phenolic grip to give it definition on the mid-length finish. Already quite complex, this is approachable now and shows early tertiary development.' 94 Points, Stephen Wong MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Light and bright lemon yellow colour. Papaya, lemon meringue and subtle cumin aromatics. An off-dry style with a voluminous core of mango and apricot fruit. There's subtle acidity wrapping around it and that ensure good length and sets the finish up to roll clean and refreshing to the end'

92 Points, Stuart Knox, THEREALREVIEW.COM

GREYWACKE RIESLING 2021

'Medium/dry but perfectly balanced riesling with lime, wildflowers, apricot and oyster shell flavours. Fresh, mouth-watering wine that is delicious now but should develop greater complexity and a mellower texture with bottle age.' 94 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Light, bright colour with an intriguing nose of oak-kissed spice/licorice fruit, the palate rich and ripe, rounded and ample with judicious use of sweetness which is nicely balanced with the other components. Oak is subtly evident on the nose but is barely felt otherwise. Delicious drinking in an off-dry style.'

93 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Quince, yellow plum and honeydew melon followed by lemongrass and ginger slices with a hint of paraffin and smoky aromas. Medium-bodied, vivid acidity. Beautiful crispness and minerality.'

91 Points, James Suckling, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Greywacke's juicy 2021 Riesling flows across the palate with ease – it is suave, well-handled wine. Off-dry in character, the delicate sweetness is counterbalanced by bright acidity that courses through the wine's core while well-handled phenolics bring additional drive and structure. Fine apple and floral characters linger on the attractive finish.' 91 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

GREYWACKE RIESLING 2020

'Full-bodied, with strong, citrusy, peachy, spicy flavours, showing good complexity, that build to a crisp, gently sweet, lasting finish.' 98 Points, Michael Cooper, WINESTATE MAGAZINE

'Honeysuckle and a natural white spice linked to the fruits add complexity and appeal. The acid line offers contrast and mouthfeel, adds to the texture and length, but most prominent are the synergies from the lees and fruit, with acidity and floral highlights showing as the wine opens out in the glass. Fabulous length and complexity.' 96 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, DECANTER.COM

'A beguiling, fragrant, complex yet vinous rather than varietal bouquet with aromas of rosemary, grapefruit and apple skin with biscuit notes and hints of crushed leaves. Quite delicate in texture but tasty, honeyed and delicious...' 95 Points, Bennet & Hudson, WINERATER.CO.NZ

'Inviting aromas of beeswax, pears, ginger and wet minerals. Juicy and generous on the palate with a hint of sweetness at the finish. Elegant.' 92 Points, James Suckling, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'A flicker of honeyed sweetness adds texture and roundness...a deliberate and well-crafted style.'
92 Points, Editors' Choice, Christina Pickard, WINE ENTHUSIAST

'Tangy, vibrant, medium-dry riesling with strong lime, oyster-shell and wildflower flavours. Delicious sweet-and-sour tension is a crowning feature of this concentrated wine. Great now but with interesting ageing potential.' 94 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'This has a gorgeous aroma of pear, lemon, wet stone, saffron and subtle fresh herbs. So fresh and vital yet rich and profound.' 95 Points, David Lawrason, WINEALIGN.COM

'Kevin Judd's latest riesling masterpiece is not just the same crackling scintillant of past iterations, but from 2020 a next level fleshy and succulent version of itself. A ripe peach, a perfectly tart nectarine and a vapour trail long, multiplying and winding. Exceptional riesling.' 94 Points, Michael Godel, WINEALIGN.COM

'It is a round, succulent style, offering sweet apple flavors and fresh citrus brightness. This has a balanced, gently refreshing and tranquil finish.' 91 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

GREYWACKE RIESLING 2019

'Aromatic, complex and enticing bouquet with aromas of exotic flowers and heirloom citrus. Meyer lemon, wild peach and lees spices. Sweetness on the palate is easily contrasted by acidity and a core of fruit flavours that reflect the bouquet. Very lengthy finish, satin textured, floral and delicious.'

96 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, THE SHOUT (NZ)

'A very fine and scintillating style, offering lifted aromas of violets, red apples and white talc. While there is residual sugar here lending juiciness on the midpalate, there's plenty of tension providing sinew and precision.'

93 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

'A transparent and crystalline riesling, featherweight across a gauze of lime drop, pink grapefruit and jasmine. A ripple of juicy acidity carries it long with a strident cadence, pulling the saliva from the back of the mouth with an effortless thrum while coating it with a faint dollop of sweetness. Highly versatile. Dangerously drinkable.'

93 Points, Ned Goodwin MW, @NEDGOODWINMW

'Bright, intense, steely, quite punchy and complex on the nose with almost Germanic sulphide complexity. Shows characters of crunchy green apple, flint and white flowers/honeysuckle. A racy, elegant palate with a purity of fruit, tangy, salivating acidity, great length and drive. A classy Riesling with great ageing potential.'

93 Points, Bennet & Hudson, WINERATER.CO.NZ

'Lime zest, white flowers, struck-flint, oyster-shell and green apple characters. The wine builds attractive sweet-and-sour tension. Power, purity and a mouth-watering finish.'

92 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Light yellow hue, with a big sulfur whiff at first, over the top of honey and floral aromas, the bouquet reminding more of German wine than Antipodean. The wine is dry and lean in the mouth with good intensity and length. There is a tickle of sweetness at the core, a halbtrocken style perhaps, but the finish is dried off cleanly by vibrant acidity. A fine wine that should repay cellaring.'

92 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Smoke, steel and flowers with some subtle pear character follow through to a medium body, firm acidity and a flavourful finish.'

GREYWACKE

93 Points, Bennet & Hudson, WINERATER.CO.NZ

'Spirited and pure...ripe apple, lime and white talc aromas. It has a juicy midpalate...balanced by buoyant acidity...Succulent with delicious balance.' 92 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

'Lightly toasty, lemony bouquet, plus a hint of peach nectar. Juicy, off-dry backed up by firm, drying acidity that leaves a note of austerity on the aftertaste.' 92 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Bold aromas and flavors of green apple, lime and rosemary, even a touch of peach, along with more weight and texture than most German versions.' 91 Points, Joe Czerwinski, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'Lime and peach with light herbal notes and hints of chamomile. The palate has bold, lime and tropical-fruit flavors with an off-dry finish and gently creamy texture.' 91 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

The palate displays excellent fruit intensity and vibrancy, backed by whispering sweetness and firm acidity, leading to a lengthy refined finish.' 94 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

'Very fresh, tightly bound and taut, quite elegant in presentation, but not too slender, as this has intensity, showing an amalgam of white florals, subtle herb and honeysuckle notes with integrated lime fruit and mineral nuances.' 18.5- Points, Raymond Chan, RAYMONDCHANWINEREVIEWS.CO.NZ

95 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.COM

The flavours are intense for the full length of the palate.' 94 Points, Toni Paterson MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Reserved floral riesling aromas, distinctive and crisp, with elevated acidity providing a tart finish. Very bracing, refreshing young riesling. The finish is clean, crisp and tangy. A pristine young wine which should age beautifully.' 93 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'An off-dry style that brings ripe peaches and melon into the fold of more citrus-focused character, to good effect. Lime-meringue finish.' 92 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'It might be compared to a Spätlese feinherb in style. It's ripe and peachy, with melon flavors as well, but those plush, fruity sensations are backed by fine notes of pulverized stone and lime zest that provide backbone and length.' 91 Points, Joe Czerwinski, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'Taut and finely concentrated core of savoury citrus fruits along with white and yellow florals, hints of honey and a subtle toasty edge. The wine carries along a fine-textured line, leading to piquant and poised, refreshing finish.' 18.5+ Points, Raymond Chan, RAYMONDCHANWINEREVIEWS.CO.NZ
