

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2021

'The elegance at the end is quite remarkable.' – Roger Jones; 'Well balanced and really quite a serious wine.' – Freddy Bulmer; 'Tastes like pricey white Bordeaux. Delicious.' – Cat Lomax

97 Points, Decanter tasting panel, DECANTER.COM

'Seriously deep and generous, high-energy and rewardingly complex. Should also reward some ageing.'

97 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'...superb; the wine has all the tilt and lift of Sauvignon Blanc and all the richness from the maturation vessels, plus something extra from the low-yielding but excellent 2021 vintage. This is an exciting wine that is already so balanced and poised. Excellent. Drink it now or cellar it for up to 20 years, maybe more?'

95 Points, Erin Larkin, ROBERT PARKER WINE ADVOCATE

'Sophisticated, complex barrel-fermented sauvignon blanc. It is easy to see why this label has attracted a cult following—it is different, distinctive and very appealing. Impressively textural wine that retains its varietal identity while offering so much more than simple fruit flavours.'

95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Lime blossoms, white peach and green kiwi, followed by jasmine and fresh herbs with intense flinty minerality. Impressive minerality and freshness.' 94 Points, James Suckling, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Weighty, showing development, oak, lots of heft. Powerful and concentrated with a slightly spicy edge on the soft finish...' 94 Points, Stephen Wong MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Typically reductive and a little funky...strikes a fine balance with the fruit...There's lovely texture to the palate, with zippy acidity and a salted citrus finish.' 93 Points, Christina Pickard, WINE ENTHUSIAST

'Reveals ripe melon, dried fennel and yellow apple notes that mingle with marmalade, tangerine and a touch of mango on the juicy finish.' 93 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINESPECTATOR.COM

'This one is just about perfect: sophisticated, layered, succulent and citrusy.' The Year's 50 Best Wines Under $50, From an Expert Who Tasted 3,243 – Elin McCoy, BLOOMBERG.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2020

'Attractive nose of lemon sherbet, rosemary, thyme and grated nutmeg. Medium-bodied and silky. So fresh and seamless on the palate with subtle tannins. Chamomile and wet stone. Subtle, nuanced and delicious.'

RATED 32nd, TOP 100 NZ WINES OF 2022, 95 Points, James Suckling, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'...reductive note of nuts, charred toast and lemon pith, grass and herbal notes taking a back seat. The palate is ready in texture, buoyed by crystalline acidity. There's length, balance and a long lemony finish.'

RATED 84th, TOP 100 WINES OF 2022, 92 Points, Christina Pickard, WINE ENTHUSIAST

'Wow, this is stunning, pure Sauvignon meets sophisticated winemaking and an attractive grip on the finish.'

17.5 Points, Julia Harding MW, JANCISROBINSON.COM

'Smoky matchstick oak and reduction aromas, crushed rocks too, the sulfides dominate somewhat, but there is good sauvignon fruit when you look for it. Concentrated, rich, lots of power, amplitude and impact.

Warmth of alcohol is part of the persistence.' 95 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Fermented in old oak using wild yeasts. Textural sauvignon blanc with red capsicum, gooseberry, nectarine together with savoury ginger, toasted nut and struck flint flavours. Great power and purity'

95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'A textural dream...bright lemon freshness pervades everything and silhouettes every nuance of flavour.

Beautiful.' 95 Points, Anne Krebiehl MW, FALSTAFF.COM

'An elegant, well-poised wine with a lovely, seamless texture, flavours of quince and citrus, fine, lively acidity and a lingering, mineral finish. A most stylish wine...'

96 Points, Bennet & Hudson, WINERATER.CO.NZ

'...it is rounded and curved, with layers and nuance. It's a delightful, succulent yet precise style that should turn chardonnay fans on to Sauvignon Blanc.'

92 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

'Delicious on the palate - saline, citrus, peach and mineral followed by preserved lemon and white spice, some nettles and hay flavours leading to a lengthy and vibrant textured finish...flavourful, well made and edgy. Nothing overdone. Yum!'

94 Points, Cameron Douglas, WORLD OF WINE

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2019

'...fragrant and weighty, with concentrated, ripe tropical fruit flavours, biscuity, savoury notes adding complexity, and a finely textured finish.' 98 Points, Michael Cooper, WINESTATE MAGAZINE

'Spell-binding wine that gets better with every swirl' 97 Points, Bennet & Hudson, WINERATER.CO.NZ

'... grapefruit, ginger, roasted nut, oyster-shell and saline flavours. A sophisticated, complex wine that has developed a cult following.' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'An enticingly complex bouquet...delivers texture before flavour, minerality before fruit, is harmonious, fresh, youthful and dry.' 95 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, WORLD OF WINE (NZ)

'...not pungently aromatic, but complex and beautifully harmonised, the aftertaste clean, dry and lingering. A lovely glass of wine.' 95 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Slippery then chalky, intense yet refreshing...A complex, compelling interpretation of the variety done with aplomb.' 94 Points, Mike Bennie, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'... one of Marlborough's smartest oaked Sauvignon Blancs...Impressive, as usual.'

93 Points, Erin Larkin, ROBERT PARKER WINE ADVOCATE

'I think this is one of the most refined and integrated Wild Sauvignons I've had the pleasure to taste.'

94 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

'A favorite sauvignon with sliced-pear, apple, smoke and flint aromas that follow through to a full body that is tight and well-structured with tension and focus.' 94 Points, James Suckling, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'A leader in the oaked styles of Kiwi Sauvignon Blanc...still young and tight, this wine's best years are still to come.' 93 Points, Angus Hughson, WINEPILOT.COM

'Plenty of nuance and detail, with a vibrant thread of juicy acidity and supple and complex notes of candied ginger, dried honeysuckle and lemon curd.' 92 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINESPECTATOR.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2018

'Just wow. Perfumed, bold, expressive and very aromatically complex... Our top scoring Sauvignon after days of tasting for very good reason.' 97 Points, Bennet & Hudson, WINERATER.CO.NZ

'Distinctive texture with a fine lees, brisk acidity and a mineral mouthfeel. Expressive and complex, lengthy and delicious. A fascinating wine!' 96 Points, Cameron Douglas MS, DECANTER.COM

'Rich, textural sauvignon blanc with a funky-reductive influence, baguette crust, citrus, nectarine and rock melon characters. A complex wine.' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'A New Zealand sauvignon blanc like no other... each sip a joy.' Victoria Moore, THE TELEGRAPH (UK)

'If you want to be wild and do it with Sauvignon, I can't think of a better place to start.'
92 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

'A powerful sauvignon that could reward cellaring.' 95 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'...offers opulence in the form of a pale honey hue and aromas of rich orchard fruit, pineapple rind, ginger candy and a slight cheesy, yeasty note.' 92 Points, Christina Pickard, WINE ENTHUSIAST

'Immensely complex and engaging...outstanding weight and presence combined with rich texture and juicy acidity, finishing superbly long and expansive.' 95 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

'A clever, complex nose, offering aromas of gunflint, herbs and lime peel with a grassy edge...dry, satisfyingly long, tropical-laced finish.' 94 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESUCKLING.COM

'Rapier-like thrust...absolutely delicious.' 94 Points, Ned Goodwin MW, @NEDGOODWINMW

'...a beautiful expression of the variety and place.' 94 Points, Angus Hughson, WINEPILOT.COM

'A leading example of Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc from well outside the mainstream...tightly structured, with concentrated, vigorous tropical-fruit.' 4½ Stars, Michael Cooper, MICHAELCOOPER.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2017

'A very complex and quite different style with plenty of reductive, flinty funk and toasted-lime zest, as well as clotted cream and passion fruit...a rich and fluid feel with plush, smoothly fleshy build and a sweeping, round finish.' Rated 53rd. TOP 100 NZ WINES 2019, 94 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Retaining a healthy pale-yellow lustre. Loads of smoky charm, a measured dose of sulfides, toasty oak and lemon rind. A lovely wine. While concentrated and pure, there's a subtlety to it that takes it to a better place. Terrific winemaking.' 95 Points, Nick Butler, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Succulent white peach, apricot and lemon curd flavors are wonderfully lush and complex, with whiffs of beeswax, powdered ginger and lemongrass that linger on a juicy frame.'

92 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINESPECTATOR.COM

'It is rich exotic and very complex with a lovely velvety texture...the palate is juicy and creamy with nice green plum tones to the tropical fruit flavours. Outstanding length and great focus.'

93 Points, Steve Thurlow, WINEALIGN.COM

'The lees, struck flint and subtle oak influence sit nicely alongside bright, herbal-dominant sauvignon blanc characters.' 93 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'A difficult vintage due to cyclones during the harvest period, yet there's a highly successful, powerful wine here. You can expect flesh on the palate, tied together with a taut acid structure that leaves you smacking your lips. Flinty characters, flirty floral aromas and a tangy green element combine on the mid-length finish, reminiscent of nettles and mint.' 91 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, VINOUS.COM

'Starts reductively, with wax, onion and salty notes but opens with air to something more buttery, like a Chardonnay, with citrus, stone fruit and green herbal aromas...this vintage is a more focused and refreshingly restrained expression than we've seen.' 90 Points, Christina Pickard, WINE ENTHUSIAST

'...unusually elegant, complex and ageworthy sauvignon blanc...a complex, still youthful bouquet, leading into a delicious, multi-layered wine, sweet-fruited and tightly structured, with highly impressive depth, complexity and harmony.' 5 Stars, Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2016

'All the complexity seen in great white wines, plenty of savoury influence...succulent and carefully layered texture.' Rated 44th. TOP 100 NZ WINES 2018, 94 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Artful influence of struck flint reductive character adding interest and complexity. It's easy to see how this stylish wine can attract a cult following.' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Restrained, delicate and dry, crisp and balanced with softness and drinkability. I like its subtlety. A delicious wine.' 95 Points, Huon Hooke, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Just gorgeous...fragrant and generous, with honeysuckle, key lime, lemongrass and fresh ginger notes that mingle with grapefruit and pear flavours.' 93 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINESPECTATOR.COM

'A highly floral expression on the nose, exuding talc and rose petals, with a more delicate expression on the palate. Very pretty indeed.' 95 Points, Rebecca Gibb MW, DECANTER.COM

'Full of personality...it is highly fragrant, with excellent weight and depth of ripe, tropical fruit flavours. A classy, distinctive wine, it's well worth discovering.' 5 Stars, Michael Cooper, MICHAELCOOPER.CO.NZ

'Gooseberry and passionfruit. Rich, textured, spicy, passionfruit and ripe pear fruit, with lots of struck-match reduction. Brisk not crisp acidity. Long.' 17+ Points, Tim Jackson MW, JANCISROBINSON.COM

'Perky perfume of green herbs, gooseberry, passionfruit, citrus. Zingy in the palate and almost feels riesling racy. Nice kind of feel...Intriguing.' 93 Points, Mike Bennie, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'A stunning, multi-layered sauvignon blanc...The more you taste it, the more you see.'
95 Points, Toni Paterson MW, THEREALREVIEW.COM

'Toasty...layers of ripe nectarine and pineapple.' 91 Points, Joe Czerwinski, ROBERTPARKER.COM

'Kevin Judd's wines are never shy and never boring...an opulent Sauvignon, quite the opposite of the Marlborough style.' 90 Points, Christina Pickard, WINE ENTHUSIAST (USA)

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2015

'Pure, flinty wine in a bone-dry style with citrus and subtle stone fruit flavours...a suede-like texture. Impressive.' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ

'Restrained and poised...an outstanding rendition of Greywacke's now famous Wild Sauvignon...finishing superbly long and mouth-watering.' 96 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

'An arresting wine, revealing lovely delicacy...fragrant, complex, ripely scented bouquet...vibrant and harmonious, with sweet-fruit delights.' 5 Stars, Michael Cooper, MICHAELCOOPER.CO.NZ

'Herbal and nutty flavours, savoury, chalky and rich, full-bodied and long. A powerful wine with some phenolic textural components.' 95 Points, Huon Hooke, HUONHOOKE.COM

'An absolute stand out wine with those subtle, yet distinctive, slightly funky notes...a long, layered, complex finish that rewards contemplation.' 94 Points, Sam Caporn MW, THEWINEGANG.COM

'This is a ripe, medium to full-bodied style, barrel fermented in used oak to avoid any overt vanilla or cedar flavours, yet round and mouth-filling.' 92 Points, Joe Czerwinski, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'Supple, rich and spicy, with smooth, honeyed overtones and whiffs of lanolin and honeycomb...Smooth and succulent on the finish.' 91 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINESPECTATOR.COM

'...lovely tang of spice lingering on bell pepper finish. Excellent.' 91 Points, Neil Martin, VINOUS.COM

'Heady notes of brioche, coconut, salted cashews, lime, pineapple and baked apples. The acidity is bright and bouncy enough to keep things balanced.' 90 Points, Christina Pickard, WINE ENTHUSIAST (USA)

'Intense, opulent but tightly wound, with spicy, grassy, sweet hay and dried flower aromas and layers of spice, lemon-curd and gunflint.' Joanna Simon, JOANNASIMON.COM

'This is an outstanding wine which definitely shines a new light on sauvignon blanc.'
4½ Stars, Joelle Thomson, JOELLETHOMSON.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2014

'A lovely array of lemongrass, lime leaves and coriander seed over a core of grapefruit and dried herbs...beautiful satiny texture...' 92 Points, Lisa Perrotti-Brown, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'Rich, vibrant tropical fruit flavours, showing excellent complexity, and a long, dry, well-rounded finish.'
5 Stars, Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES

'Quite fleshy with good, ripe and fruity acidity. Approachable now but with plenty of cellaring potential.'
95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ

'There's a wealth of flesh and weight...great acidity, smooth and supple texture, finishes succulent and flavoursome, gently creamy.' 94 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Architectural sauvignon blanc, with pleasure.' 94 Points, Mike Bennie, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'Lemon-lime and lemongrass set on a light and supple body. Peppery, fresh herb accents linger... flavours crescendo and a lemon verbena detail sings out.' 91 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINE SPECTATOR

'Powerful and refined at the same time...offers terrific mid-palate weight and flow, finishing superbly long and engaging. A multifaceted, multilayered sauvignon.' 95 Points, Sam Kim, WINEORBIT.CO.NZ

'An awesome producer, Greywacke... This super premium beauty exhibits impressive mid-palate density and silky texture... Top Class.' 93 Points, Beppi Crosariol, THE GLOBE AND MAIL, TORONTO

'Fresh scents of lemon verbena tea, menthol and smoke. Boasts terrific clarity...sappy, dense sauvignon blanc with terrific underlying structure.' 92 Points, Stephen Tanzer, VINOUS.COM

'Aromas are slightly feral, adding a funky edge to scents of smoke and grilled white nectarines. The silky texture stands out, as does the long, citrusy finish.' 92 Points, Joe Czerwinski, WINE ENTHUSIAST

'Wild herbs, meadow grasses are carried by a fine, tight, brisk hum of spicing through the stony, lanolin-lined finish...a wine that transcends grape variety.' 92 Points, Treve Ring, GISMONDIONWINE.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2013

'No one's Marlborough sauvignon blanc experience is complete unless they have sipped Greywacke Wild Sauvignon.' Victoria Moore, THE TELEGRAPH (UK)

'Fragrant with an appealing delicacy.' 96 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ

'Multi-faceted and rewarding, in a Graves-like style.' 95 Points, Huon Hooke, HUONHOOKE.COM

'Beautiful floral nose of orange blossoms and jasmine with underlying ripe nectarine, tangerine and spiced apple notes, plus a touch of elderflower.' 91 Points, Lisa Perrotti-Brown, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'Immaculate, tightly structured wine.' 5 Stars, Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES

'Spicy...masses of depth and length.' 17.5 Points, Julia Harding MW, JANCISROBINSON.COM

'Succulent pear, peach and melon flavors show a lovely touch of fresh ginger, dried honeysuckle and nectarine flavours. Generous, sleek and juicy.' 91 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINE SPECTATOR (US)

'...neat, composed and compact.' 93 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Awesome and exciting...gorgeous bouquet...' 96 Points, Sam Kim, WINE ORBIT.CO.NZ

'Its determined gaze into the future feels like it'll outlive the Sphinx. Forget everything you thought you knew about Marlborough sauvignon blanc' 94++ Points, Philip White, DRINKSTER.BLOGSPOT.COM

'...has a lick of wet slate through the mineral-charged finish. There's a delicacy/understatement here, and it's a fine feeling wine.' 93 Points, Mike Bennie, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'Flint and funk before pineapple and passionfruit. You get your cake and you get to eat it...it certainly draws you in.' 92 Points, Campbell Mattinson, WINEFRONT.COM

'A brilliant example of this richer, leesier wild-yeast style.' 92 Points, Stephen Tanzer, VINOUS.COM

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2012

'...just gorgeous – showing lovely cut herb, lemongrass, honeyed toast, hay and ginger on a nose that also has a wonderful toastiness to it.' 93 Points, Lisa Perrotti-Brown, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'...very different to Greywacke Sauvignon Blanc, although both share taut acidity and chalky minerality. This has greater weight, richness and complexity.' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ

'Ultra-complex with a kind of Didier Dagueneau texture and finish. Not to be missed.'

Exceptional, Dan Berger, VINTAGEEXPERIENCES.COM

'...one of the finest white wines I have tasted in the past five years. It is not just a fine New Zealand sauvignon, it is a great, world-class wine.' 94 Points, Tomas Clancy, SUNDAY BUSINESS POST (IRE)

'Ultra-juicy upfront, finishes tight and puckering. Steely resolve. Composed and intense. Nice trail of crushed slate-like minerality. Zing!' 93 Points, Mike Bennie, WINEFRONTNZ.COM

'The palate's crisp and fuelled by almost briny acidity which is a real feature; very nicely crafted cooler vintage character, lime and green mango flavours.' 92 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Finishes broad, dense, spicy and dry, with terrific subtle persistence. This distinctly idiosyncratic sauvignon blanc is long on personality.' 91 Points, Josh Reynolds, VINOUS.COM

'Gracefulness is coupled with power in its palate of ripe mango fruit, rosemary oil, smoke and stone, with a complexity and rich texture.' VIVA TOP 50 WINES OF 2015, Jo Burzynska, NEW ZEALAND HERALD

'A rare sauvignon blanc, not only from NZ, but also Sancerre. It has incredibly beautiful fruit, fills the mouth with fresh fruits, green notes, flowers, spices and minerals.' 90 Points, Aase Jacobsen, APERITIF.NO

'It's ravishing - I'd love to try it at seven to ten years, once it's swapped some of this handsome brashness for measured wisdom.' Philip White, DRINKSTER.BLOGSPOT.COM

'Reminiscent of Dagueneau Pouilly Fumé, at a third the price.' Lyn Farmer, LYNFARMER.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2011

'Of the many hundreds of wines I assessed blind this year, this wine stood out and continues to excite me whenever I have a glass, which is often.' 95 Points, Tim White, AUSTRALIAN FINANCIAL REVIEW

'Quite accomplished.' 17 Points, Jancis Robinson, JANCISROBINSON.COM – Tasted 2019

'This funky Sauvignon has gained a cult following.' 95 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ

'Stunning wine, combining notes of white Burgundy, white Bordeaux and Kiwi fruit exuberance... savoury, grapefruity, yeasty flavours perfectly judged.' 94 Points Tim Atkin MW, TIMATKIN.COM

'Lovely pink grapefruit, green guava and baker's yeast aromatics intermingling with touches of cedar and shaved almonds...gorgeous, satiny texture.' 92+ Points, Lisa Perrotti-Brown, ROBERTPARKER.COM

'Beauty. It's balanced, elegant, complex, shows plenty of derring-do and wildness, but in the end, it's just plain delicious. I wanted to keep drinking this. I did.' 94 Points, Mike Bennie, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'Somewhere between Marlborough and Meursault, makes most of the rest look downright lazy.'
94++ Points, Philip White, ADELAIDE INDEPENDENT NEWS (AU)

'So intense it almost hurts. Excellent lingering finish. Armed and dangerous style of sauvignon blanc. In-your-face, but remarkable quality.' 94 Points, Campbell Mattinson, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'...well outside the mainstream.' 5 Stars, Michael Cooper, BUYER'S GUIDE TO NZ WINES

'Delicious nose...wild, clove and earthy character...' 93 Points, Tom Cannavan, WINEPAGES.COM

'Texture, drive and abundant build on the palate...a beautifully, wild rendition on the genre with creamy passion fruit, melon and papaya flavours running long.' 93 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Creamy and luscious, with lemon meringue pie, lemon curd and vanilla pudding flavours up front, followed by hints of smoke and dried chamomile.' 92 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINE SPECTATOR (US)

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2010

'The 2010 Wild Sauvignon leads with lanolin, linseed, crushed nuts, vanilla sponge cake, dried rose petals, pineapple husk and almond meal on the nose. The palate exactly follows the path set out by the aromas. Very fresh and vibrant with years to go. Viva la screw cap! Ripper.'

95 Points, Erin Larkin, ROBERT PARKER WINE ADVOCATE - Tasted 2023

'Washy textured, crisp acidity and some chalky fringes. Edgy, crunchy, long flavour, steely finish. Impossibly fresh and tightly wound. Wow.'

93 Points, Mike Bennie, WINEFRONT.COM.AU – Tasted 2016

'To combat the idea that Sauvignon doesn't age, Judd pulled out a bottle of the 2010 Wild Sauvignon, which continues to drink well.'

92 Points, Joe Czerwinski, ROBERTPARKER.COM – Tasted 2019

'Guava, nettle, mineral and subtle stone fruit flavours appear on the mid-palate, rounding out the body. An intriguing wine that still has life...'

93 Points, James Button, DECANTER.COM – Tasted 2019

'Complex and satisfying...Finely detailed and lovely.'

93 Points, Huon Hooke, HUONHOOKE.COM

'Bold and intense, this starts as a tropical concoction of coconut water and pineapple notes, with layers of melon, peach and citrus zest. Richly textured.'

92 Points, MaryAnn Worobiec, WINE SPECTATOR (US)

'Plenty of flinty, mineral notes with a gently toasty edge, pithy grapefruit and lime, oyster shells, clotted cream and a fine, complex and nicely settled palate.'

93 Points, Nick Stock, JAMESSUCKLING.COM

'Sexy aromas of pineapple, pink grapefruit and peach lifted by an ineffable top-note of brown spices...terrific tensile strength and energy.'

93 Points, Stephen Tanzer, TANZER TODAY (US)

'A dry, piercing wine. It's flinty, limey, smoky, lemongrassy. It has bitter marmalade characters and bready, yeasty notes too. I came away impressed.'

92 Points, Campbell Mattinson, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'It's finer, and seems drier, like fumé blanc from the Loire Valley. Of course, it has no bubbles, but I've tasted lovely Champagnes with flavour form like this.'

Philip White, DRINKSTER.BLOGSPOT.COM

GREYWACKE

GREYWACKE WILD SAUVIGNON 2009

'Kevin Judd takes Marlborough Sauvignon to new heights with this one!'

93+ Points, Lisa Perrotti-Brown, EROBERTPARKER.COM

'I tasted through maybe twenty wines last night and this one stopped me in my tracks...might well be as good as Marlborough Sauvignon gets.' 95 Points, Gary Walsh, WINEFRONT.COM.AU

'The most exciting New Zealand sauvignon I've yet encountered.' Fiona Beckett, THE GUARDIAN (UK)

'A green/gold glass of complex pristine sauvignon that owes as much to great chardonnays as it does to the Marlborough sauvignon brigade.' 94 Points, Nick Stock, GOOD WINE GUIDE 2012 (AU)

'Almost Graves-like, this is the pick of Judd's whites.' 94 Points, Tim Atkin MW, TIMATKIN.COM

'Transcends the genre.' 93 Points, Huon Hooke, SYDNEY MORNING HERALD (AU)

'NZ's most dashing new sauvignon.' 95 Points, Tyson Stelzer, WINE 100 MAGAZINE (AU)

'Full-bore, king-hell complex SavvyB...oozes the heady vanillins of jackfruit and durian, with the acrid cordite aroma of a greywacke quarry after a blast.' 94++ Points, Philip White, INDAILY.COM.AU

'Swoon-inducing marzipan and preserved lemon flavours...' Yvonne Lorkin, TWITTER

'Who makes the most captivating and complex sauvignon blanc on the planet? ...Kevin Judd is certainly in the running with this fabulous wine.' Tony Harper, BRISBANE NEWS (AU)

'Will make people rethink Marlborough sauvignon blanc.' Jane Faulkner, THE AGE (AU)

'I loved the creamy togetherness of this six-year-old Sauvignon...everything is wrapped in a delicious sheen of fragrant and delicate oak and downy fruit softness.' 93 Points, Tom Cannavan, WINE-PAGES.COM

'The real high point is texture.' 93 Points, Bob Campbell MW, BOBCAMPBELL.NZ
